Frequently Asked Questions

1. What is CancerCare Plus?

It is an insurance plan which provides a lump sum payment in the event of a Major Cancer or Early Stage Cancer diagnosis.

2. Who is eligible to buy CancerCare Plus?

A person aged between 20 years and below 65 years old, residing in Singapore and meets the set of medical related conditions will qualify for cover:

- (a) Has not received or been advised or intend to seek treatment for cancer, leukemia, tumour, lump or growth;
- (b) Is not awaiting the results of any medical tests, investigations or scans; and
- (c) Does not have 2 or more immediate family members (i.e., parents or siblings) who have/had been diagnosed with cancer.

3. What is Major Cancer?

A malignant tumour positively diagnosed with histological confirmation and characterized by the uncontrolled growth of malignant cells with invasion and destruction of normal tissue.

The term malignant tumour includes leukemia, lymphoma and sarcoma. Please refer to the product summary or policy wordings for the full definition of Major Cancer.

4. What is Early Stage Cancer?

It refers to cancer in its early stages or growth and may not have spread to other parts of the body. Please refer to the product summary or policy wordings for the full list and definition of Early Stage Cancers.

5. If I have made a claim for Early Stage Cancer, can I in the future submit a Major Cancer claim for another type of cancer?

Yes, if the first cancer diagnosis is an Early Stage Cancer, you can make a subsequent claim for Major Cancer regardless the type of cancer. The policy will cease upon full payment of the benefit amount, i.e., S$100,000.

6. After I have made a claim for an Early Stage Cancer, can I submit a claim for another Early Stage Cancer diagnosis?

The Early Stage Cancer benefit is an Accelerated benefit which will be paid once, thereafter, this benefit will cease. The policy will continue to remain in force, with a remaining sum insured of S$50,000 to provide you with protection in the event of a Major Cancer diagnosis.

7. Will I be required to continue with premiums payment after an Early Stage Cancer diagnosis?

Yes, the policy continues to remain in force and the premiums will continue to be applicable.

8. Do I need to renew my Policy every year?

As long as you continue with the monthly/annual premium payments, the policy will be automatically renewed every year until you reach the age of 84 years old.

9. Will the CancerCare Plus premiums increase as I grow older?

The insurance premiums will increase with age. Please refer to the product summary document for details.

10. What is waiting period?

Waiting period is 90 days from the commencement date of the policy. No claim can be made for any cancer diagnosed within this waiting period.

11. What is survival period?

Survival period is the period of time for which an insured must survive, for a period of 7 days from the time of diagnosis, before a claim can be made.

12. What is Free Look Period?

A free look period is the time period given to you to cancel the policy with full premium refund, should you decide that you do not want the policy. The free look period is 14 business days from the date you receive the policy.
