Frequently Asked Questions

1. What is the definition of an Accident under this insurance?

An Accident refers to an event which happens suddenly and gives rise to a result which the Insured Person did not intend or anticipate. All benefits are payable under this policy only when it is due to an accident.

2. Who can enrol for this insurance?

- Any person aged between 18 years and 65 years
- Your legal spouse aged between 18 years and 65 years
- A parent aged between 18 years and 65 years covering himself/herself and his or her biological or legally adopted, unmarried children aged 1 year to 18 years or 23 years if pursuing full-time education in a recognised tertiary institution.

Provided all persons to be insured are residing in Singapore.

3. If I am already insured with another insurer, how can I arrange cover for my spouse and children?

Your spouse may apply for this insurance on his/her own. In which case, 3 of your Children can be covered at 10% of the Sum Insured for Death, Permanent and Total Disablement and Medical Expenses benefits for a flat premium according to the Plan selected by your spouse.

4. If I increase or reduce my sum insured during the term of cover, will I receive the renewal bonus on the new limit?

The first renewal bonus will be calculated at 10% of the revised limit on renewal of the policy and any adjustments under the previous limit will lapse. Renewal bonus applicable to Death and Permanent Total Disablement benefits only.

5. Will I be covered if I have to travel and stay out of Singapore?

You or any of the Insured Persons are covered for any short term travel out of Singapore up to 6 consecutive months during any period of insurance. The cover for that Insured Person lapses thereafter and all the benefits under the policy for such person shall cease from such date.

6. Why are premium rates based on occupation?

Each occupation type presents different risk hazards depending on the nature of work and this has a direct effect on the level of premium to be charged.

7. I have Personal Accident policies with different insurers. Can I claim from all the insurers if I were to meet with an accident?

This will depend on the terms of your policies. Please check with your insurer when in doubt.

8. What are the policy exclusions?

The key exclusions are war and warlike operations, radioactive and nuclear activity, work on board aircraft, dangerous sports, suicide, self-injury, pre-existing physical or mental defect, under influence of drugs (unless prescribed by a registered Medical Practitioner) or alcohol, full time military service, uniformed groups and occupations excluded under the insurance. The full details of the exclusions are contained in the policy.

This is not a contract of insurance. The benefits payable are subject to the occurrence of an Accident. You should consider carefully if you are intending to switch personal accident policies, as this might be detrimental to your current and/or future needs.

Full details of this insurance are provided in the policy and will be sent to you upon acceptance of your application by MSIG Insurance (Singapore) Pte. Ltd.
